Help us to save and be part of Woodstock's last great community space!

Help revive the Old Woodstock Social Club by joining our Community Benefit Society (CBS).

A Legacy Worth Protecting

Founded in 1920 for returning WWI servicemen, this historic venue has been the heart of Woodstock life for over a century. From weddings to parties, plays to celebrations, it's where memories are made, and community thrives. Even Sir Winston Churchill cherished the old club as a gathering spot for fellow soldiers.

Our Vision

More than just a bar and sports club—imagine extended hours, diverse events, and something for everyone, every day.

Take this quick survey to share your ideas and shape the future of this invaluable space. Let's preserve this historic gem for the next 100 years!
